

Hanover Land Services Recognized Among Top 100 Regional Minority Businesses

Hanover Land Services, Inc. (HLS) is proud to announce that Kristin Barmoy, Owner and President, HLS, has received the prestigious Top 100 Minority Business® Enterprise Award.

“Hanover Land Services, Inc. represents the best of what our region’s minority business community has to offer,” said Sharon R. Pinder, CEO of the Center for Business Inclusion and Diversity and founder of the Top 100 MBE® Awards Ceremony. “This award is the culmination of sacrifice, dedication, and hard work and will inspire future minority business entrepreneurs to strive for the same level of success.”

A panel of distinguished judges chose HLS from five thousand nominations. Selection was based on entrepreneurs who demonstrated outstanding achievement in four key areas: entrepreneurship, client satisfaction, and professional and community contributions.

“Hanover Land Services, Inc. is proud to be recognized as one of the region’s Top 100 minority businesses,” said Barmoy. “With more than 40 years of service in the mid-Atlantic region, Hanover Land Services, Inc. is committed to providing continued top-notch services to our clients through strategic and innovative practices.”

HLS is a land development engineering and surveying company with offices in Hanover and Westminster, MD. They

Hanover Has Sweet Spot for Broken Cookie

Got a sweet tooth? Look no farther than The Broken Cookie! Hoping to follow in their grandparents’ footsteps, Tabitha McDonald and Megan Bare are third generation bakers looking to make a mark in the Hanover community. Offering a delightful variety of freshly made cookies, desserts, pastries, and moist cakes, as well as unique coffee and espresso drinks, these sisters are well on their way to icon status!

McDonald and Bare love desserts - that’s why they opened a bakery! Each week, they display a variety of special delights, from weekly-themed cookies to homemade breakfast pastries.

Preparing for an event? The Broken Cookie can design custom-made cakes or mini desserts for any occasion! For a fun twist, look no further than The Broken provide the surveys, plans, reports, and leg work necessary to navigate the often complicated government approval process required to develop property.

Please visit www.hlsinc.net for more information.

Cookie to host your child’s next birthday party. The kids will have a blast decorating cookies in their own chef’s hat! And for the love birds, The Broken Cookie can design your dream wedding cake!

McDonald, the baker of the two, is a skilled cake decorator with an eye for perfection. Her motto is if she wouldn’t buy it, she wouldn’t expect you to either. Creating new and innovative designs each week, McDonald strives to give her customers variety and distinctive flavors that can’t be found at a commercial grocer.

Bare is in charge of customer relations, and she’s all business! Having served in the US Air Force for four years, and a veteran of Operation Iraqi Freedom, she runs a tight ship! She trains the staff at The Broken Cookie to treat every customer with courtesy and respect.

Whether you have a big event coming up, or just need a special pick-me-up on the way to the office, look no further than The Broken Cookie, which is located in the Clearview Shopping Center, 1000 Carlisle St. You can also call 698-1659 or visit www.brokencookiehanover.com.

Sponsor your commemorative flag today!

3,000 3ft x 5ft flags will fly 8ft tall in perfect rows and columns commemorating the 10-year anniversary of all those that died September 11, 2001.

Funds will benefit programs of the Wounded Warrior Project, National Fallen Firefighters Foundation and local fire, police and veterans groups.

Hosted by the Hanover Exchange Club at West Manheim Elementary School 2000 Baltimore Pike Hanover, PA

For more information, please visit www.healingfield.org/hanover

September 9 -12, 2011

